

C-2: Elected Officials.

C-2: Elected Officials.

The policies and procedures of elected officials are subject to review by the public in regularly scheduled elections. Elected officials, in their relations with their staff, are exempt from all rules governing hiring and discipline of employees, except for provisions required by Federal and State laws. Elected officials should use this manual as a guide so that the conditions of employment shall be uniform for all who are employed by Fairfield County.